

The members are the union!

How you can build a strong union . . .

1. Stay informed about union activities
2. Do your best to understand your contract
3. Read union materials
4. Vote in elections
5. Communicate with fellow employees and union leadership about important workplace issues

“Everyone committing a little bit of time will make UPTE a powerful and effective union.”

I will. . .

- Be a contact person for my area: zone contact, maintain the bulletin boards, distribute information, keep members aware of bargaining progress and sign up new members (1 hour/mo)
- Become a Union Builder and sign up current non-members and new hires (3 hours/mo)
- Call 5-10 members from time to time to recruit for a meeting or event (1 hour/mo)
- Be on the mobilizg committee to help UPTE reach and maintain the highest membership numbers in order to win the best contracts possible (up to 4 hours/mo)
- Serve on the social committee and plan social activities and provide logistic support (time as needed when we have get togethers)
- Become a steward by attending training sessions as necessary and helping to enforce our contracts (4 hours/mo)
- Participate in legislative campaigns by writing letters, sending e-mails, or making phone calls (1/2 hour/mo)
- Come to monthly membership meetings (1 hour/mo)
